Notes:

- Clients can refer to the “Fund Deposit Video” on our Company website for the procedures of the deposit channels mentioned above.
- If clients fail to receive the daily statements within 4 trading days after the funds deposit or find that the funds deposit has not shown on the daily statements, please immediately contact our Customer Service Department to check the relevant payment. However, if clients have not followed the above funds deposit procedures, clients will be responsible for the risk and loss arising out of any failure in funds deposits.
- The fund deposit cut-off time of our Company (Monday – Friday business days) is 5:00pm. If our Company receives said instructions no later than 5:00 pm, we will handle the deposit on the same business day. Otherwise such instructions of depositing funds will be handled on the following business day. (For detailed instructions, please refer to the “Fund Deposit and Withdrawal” on our Company website.)
- As the deposit handling process takes time, fund deposits by clients may not be available immediately. Clients should note that fund deposits will only be available for trading after our Company’s confirmation is shown on the corresponding trading systems.
- When clients signed the Account Opening Form, clients have authorized our Company to transfer funds or buying power between the Securities Account, the Futures Account, the Stock Options Account, Forex Account and Bullion Account at any moment without any further notice.
- Clients who would like to transfer funds amongst BS Securities, BS Futures, BSFX and BSGB could use our Electronic Channels or call our Customer Service Hotline to deliver the instructions of transferring funds. If our Company receives said instructions no later than 5:00 pm, we will handle the transfer on the same business day. Otherwise such instructions of transferring funds will be handled on the following business day. (For detailed instructions, please refer to the “Internal Transfer Video” on our Company website.)
- Please follow the above instructions to avoid any delay in the funds transfer. Our Company reserves the rights to reject the deposit until clients provide valid bank pay-in slip.

2 Withdrawal Channels and Important Notes:

2.2 If our Company receives funds withdrawal instructions no later than 1:00 pm, we will handle the instructions on the same business day. Otherwise such instructions of withdrawing funds will be handled on the following business day. (For detailed instructions, please refer to the "Fund Withdrawal Video" on our Company website.)

*Applicable to Day Trade Margin Account: All withdrawal instructions will be handled on the next business day.

2.3 Clients should wait for the completion of the clearing and settlement of relevant products first before they can withdraw the money out of their accounts (Generally, the process will be completed on T+1 up to T+3, subject to the product and the related exchange). If the sales proceeds are generated from sale of physical stocks, clients will have to wait for not less than 12 days (based on the deposit date of the physical stocks as shown on the daily statement) before our Company can execute the relevant withdrawal request.

2.4 If our Company receives funds withdrawal instructions on a business day on which a black rainstorm warning or typhoon signal number 8 or above is issued by the Hong Kong Observatory or the HKSAR Government announced "extreme conditions", we will, in our absolute discretion, handle the instructions on the same business day or the next business day.

3 Important Notes on Trade

- 3.1 When clients place orders by phone, they must use the designated order-placing telephone numbers provided by our Company, otherwise clients will be responsible for any losses and damages whatsoever caused. Other telephone numbers, like mobile phones or other telephone numbers of our Company or mobile phones of our Company's staff cannot be used as telephone numbers for placing orders.
- 3.2 When clients invest in any investment products via our Company, they should have sufficient funds (i.e. to fulfill the minimum margin requirement of our Company) to open positions. Regarding clients' requirements for payment or margin, please visit the "Table of Deposit Ratio and Margin Loan Ratio" on our Website. Our Company reserves the rights to adjust "Table of Deposit Ratio and Margin Loan Ratio" and even suspend loans for margin financing because of any market situation without further notification to clients.
- 3.3 Customers must monitor the margin account to ensure that there is always sufficient account balance to meet the margin requirements. If client trades any investment product, the account might has a floating loss due to the market fluctuations, and when the deposit level is lower than the margin requirement, client have to either deposit sufficient funds immediately or close

- (ii) The minimum size for trading US stock option contract ("the contract") is one contract; each contract represents 100 shares of the underlying stock (Note that corporate actions may result in ONE option contract size that is not equal to 100 shares).
- (iii) Settlement Currency for US stock option is in US DOLLAR. Clients with an equivalent amount of Hong Kong dollars or other currencies in their accounts can also trade US stock option, but they must convert them into US Dollars by themselves before the closing time of the market, otherwise our company reserves the right to enforce mandatory currency conversion on behalf of clients for settlement of the contract (the conversion price will be determined and calculated according to the prevailing exchange rates provided by banks). Our company is not required to notify clients prior to any adjustments or fluctuations in the bank's exchange rate.
- (iv) Our Company currently only accepts long position transactions from clients. That means following the purchase of an US stock option, Clients can sell it to close out their positions. Short position transactions are not available at the moment.
- (v) Clients are not permitted to exercise US stock option on their own initiative.
- (vi) Clients should note that while closure of positions can only be executed within the specified timeframe, during which the opening of a new position is restricted before the expiry date of the contract, clients can choose other available contracts with various expiration periods for opening a new position.

- (vii) After the opening of a new position, the clients must pay attention to the expiration date of the relevant contract, which must be closed out by themselves within the specified timeframe before the market closes on the expiration date of the contract; if the clients do not close out the positions, our Company will attempt to do so on their behalf at market price without giving prior notice to them, in which case the clients are held responsible for all costs arising from the closing out of the positions according to our company's standard rate for placing order by phone 「電話交易佣金」. However, our Company is unable to guarantee that there is adequate liquidity in the US stock options available in the market to facilitate the closure of positions. If, in practice, our company fails to do so and in the event that any US stock options remain open that are in the money by $0.01 or above at market close, the contract will be automatically exercised by Options Clearing Corporation "OCC". In this regard, clients should understand the potential risks of their contracts being automatically exercised by OCC and any fees or losses (if any) arising from such action should be borne by the clients, and that our company is not held responsible for any losses suffered or incurred by the clients as a result.

3.10 Hong Kong and Global Futures – clients should comply with the following terms and conditions:

- (i) Due to different trading hours and settlement days for products of Global Futures, clients should be responsible for noting the trading hours and settlement days of the product, and visit our Website for any updates to the aforesaid information. Our Company will not inform clients separately for any changes to the aforesaid information. Clients should be fully responsible for all the losses whatsoever incurred as a result of any omission or delay in notifying clients of the relevant information and our Company shall not be responsible for any liability whatsoever caused.
- (ii) Our Company will not provide physical delivery service for Hong Kong and Global Futures products. To avoid any inconvenience caused by the physical delivery of some futures products, clients shall be responsible for closing out the contracts held by themselves on or before the last closing day of our Company (for details, please refer to the "Hong Kong and Global Futures Announcement Board" on our Company website) for the related products. Otherwise, our Company reserves the right to liquidate the Clients' positions without separate notice. Clients shall be fully responsible for all the losses, costs, charges and expenses whatsoever incurred as a result of any omission for closing out any open contract. Clients shall fully indemnify our Company for all incurred the losses, costs, charges and expenses whatsoever incurred as a result of any such omission.

(iii) Clients trading Hong Kong and Global futures products must pay margin for different exchange products in different settlement currency. Our Company will process the following arrangements:

(a) Daily Settlement Arrangement

Clients must exchange the settlement currency on their own before the close of trading day of futures markets for settlement purposes.

The settlement amount is calculated as follows:

Cash Balance - Initial Margin + Realized and Unrealized Profit/Loss – Transaction Fees

(b) Interest on Outstanding Balances

If client has outstanding currency balances in the futures account after the market closes (the outstanding amount is calculated based on the closing price of the exchange product), our Company will charge interest on the outstanding amount in the relevant currency at a specific annual rate (calculated daily using simple interest). Interest will be collected after 8:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) the following day. If outstanding currency balances in futures account exceed our company's established risk tolerance level, our company has the absolute discretion to exchange or transfer any currency balances (if any) held by the client in any of their accounts with our company to offset such outstanding amount; or may force liquidation on behalf of the client in response to market conditions without prior notice.

For information on debit interest rate and calculation method, please refer to "Hong Kong and Global Futures Announcement Board" on our Company website.

3.11 Important Terms for After-Hours Futures Trading Session (AHFT):

- (i) For details of Regular Futures Trading Session ("T Session") and AHFT ("T+1 Session"), please refer to the Hong Kong Futures Exchange ("HKFE") website.
- (ii) When the trading price reaches the acceptable range (if any) of futures price movements set forth by HKFE, trading orders can only be placed within but not outside the acceptable range of price movement.
- (iii) Transactions executed in T+1 Session will be regarded and reflected on statements as trades executed on the following trading day.
- (iv) Trades executed in T+1 Session will be cleared and settled on the following trading day.
- (v) Trading price continues to fluctuate regardless of clients' participation in the T+1 Session. Therefore, if clients fail at any time to keep their funds in their Futures trading accounts above the required margin level set (subject to revisions) by our Company for both T Session and T+1 Session, mandatory liquidation may be performed on their behalf at any time (for both T Session and T+1 Session) without prior notice and clients should be responsible for any risk and losses
